BIG BUCK BLEND

"Rack Developer"

DIRECTIONS - BIG BUCK BLEND "Rack Developer" was created for the serious deer hunter and manager who wants to provide protein, energy, vitamins and minerals that will maximize deer weight gain, antler development and help hold deer in your area. For best results, feed free choice. Feed should be placed along trails and watering areas. Feeders should be protected to prevent feed from becoming wet and moldy. Moldy or insect infected feed may cause illness, abortion or death.
